The Call

I can smell the moisty breezes, and the birds are singing' free—
There's a campin'-ground a-callin', I can hear it callin' me;
Spring is fillin' o'er the hilltops and
the zephyrs seem to say:
"Come you back, you child o' Nature,
back to Vagabondia!
Back to Vagabondia,
Where the breezes laugh and play;
Can't you see the waves of Aera dance
and toss themselves to spray?
Back to Vagabondia,
Where a grown-up child can play,
And the dawn comes up a promise o'er
the waves at break o' day!"

I can see the camp-fire flicker, see the smoke rise through the trees;
I can see the gleamin' moonlight as it filters through the leaves;
I can hear the still night-voices, and their chorus seems to say:
"Come you back, you child o' Nature,
back to Vagabondia!
Back to Vagabondia . . ."

I can hear the water lappin' as it
beats against the shore,
I can hear the tent-flap flappin' as the breeze comes in the door;
And the water, and the tent-flap, and
the night-wind seem to say:
"Come you back, you child o' Nature,
back to Vagabondia!
Back to Vagabondia . . ."

I can hear my banjo tummin', like a thread o' silver sound,
And its song is, "Are you comin'?" Oh,
the Spring has come around,
And my campin'-ground is callin', and it's there that I would be,
On the shores o' blue Lake Aera,
where the winds are playing free!
Back at Vagabondia,
Where the breezes laugh and play,
And the tumblin' waves of Aera dance
and toss themselves to spray!
Back at Vagabondia,
Where a grown-up child can play,
And the sun goes down a glory o'er
the hills at close o' day!

Sunday School Picnic

The Sunday school of the Auburn Park Federated church went out to the Beverly Forest Preserve for a picnic Saturday, June 26. A large number of the parents and friends of the Sunday school joined the children in making this a very successful picnic. Many games, including a spirited ball game, were participated in. All had a fine time.

The Amicae Varae class of the Auburn Park Federated Sunday school is proving that they can do things. Last Sunday evening the congregation was pleasantly surprised to see the choir loft fill with beautiful young ladies, and when they had finished their anthem all were amazed at the splendid voices. Monday evening this class entertained the young men's class at a beach party. In the serving of refreshments they showed that they could please the appetite as well as the eye and ear. Both classes turned out en masse and had a lovely time.

Daily Bible School to Start

The Auburn Park Federated church is becoming very much enthused over the prospects of the daily vacation Bible school. Over twenty members and friends of the church have volunteered to help in the school. It would be hard to find anywhere so near an entire congregation determining to "put a great work over" for the Kingdom of God. They have entered heart and soul into the spirit of the work.

The school promises to be a great success. It is hoped that every child in the community between four and fourteen years of age will be present on the opening morning, July 6, at 9 o'clock.

Service at the Auburn Park Federated Church

Morning services, 10:45. Subject, "The Book of Revelations and the World Today." Evening service, 7:45. Sunday school, 12 noon. Young people's meeting, 6:30 p. m. Midweek prayer service, Wednesday, 8 p. m.

June 8 a farewell party was given in honor of Mr. A. P. Vandewall of 8419 Green St. All had a very enjoyable evening. Mr. Vandewall left for California with his daughter, Anna, and husband, Wednesday, June 17.

On June 25 the Novelty Club of the Auburn Park Federated Church served a 5 o'clock dinner to the foremen, assistants and council members of the Weber Works, International Harvester Company. The guests of honor attending were Mr. Harold F. McCormick, president; Mr. Christ Borg, works manager, and Mr. A. H. Young of the industrial relations department. The dinner, a most delicious and plentiful affair, and served in regular Virginian fashion, was enjoyed by everyone present.

Sisters

Sisters, so alike you seem
When you lie sleeping side by side;
Yet, waking, one could scarcely dream
You sisters are: a gulf so wide
Your two sweet natures lies between.

The Mayor and His Traction Fight

In spite of the fact that the city is broke and about to issue scrip to pay its bills and wages, our horn blowing mayor asks for over half a million dollars more to fight the increase in rates of fare and telephone charges.

The council has already appropriated $828,858.40 for the traction and telephone litigations this year. Should the new request be granted the sum will be $837,322.43. In addition the council gave the mayor $250,000 to evolve his "people's ownership" plan, which brings the total involved up to $1,087,322.43.

For the legal fight to lower "L" fares and prevent further increase Mr. Cleveland specifies no exact sum, but declares that engineers and accountants will cost the city as much as in the surface line litigation, and that, owing to the amount of property involved, real estate experts will cost four times as much as they have in the street car case.

If the people were to benefit by this expenditure we would say, go to it. But according to past experience the only ones who will benefit are the "experts" and those lawyers who are "in right" with the administration. The council will be wise to vote down this request.

It looks like Bryan will have a busy time at the convention trying to save the country.

Catch Shoplifters at Reiss & Meyers

Frank Forest and an unidentified companion were detected stealing silk shirts at Reiss & Meyers department store last Wednesday about 1 p. m.

Mr. Harold Hasley, employed in the store, noticed the men attempting to conceal the shirts under their coats and upon approaching them the thieves ran and Mr. Hasley gave chase.

Officer Harder of the Gresham station was on Halsted St. at the time and noticing the men running commandeered the automobile of Ed B. Tidd of 819 W. 84th St., and succeeded in catching Forest at 78th and Sangamon Sts. Forest had three shirts valued at $10 apiece under his coat at the time he was arrested.

Combines Three Signals.

A newly designed triple-tone electric bell yields a clear ring from one push button, a buzz from the second, and a combined ring and buzz from the third. The buttons may be placed on three different doors of a house, or in office or shop the signals may be used for calling three different persons.

AUTOMOBILE GOSSIP

On wet pavements be careful to prevent skidding.

* * *

Wire wheels should be carefully inspected at frequent intervals.

* * *

It frequently comes in handy to know that a little bottle of kerosene and glycerine mixed in equal parts will clear the glass of the windshield of rain drops and give clear vision ahead.

Harold Sears, 200 pounds, charges his brother, John, 140 pounds, is "rough and violent" and wants him deported. Poor Harold.

STONE CURBS INJURE TIRES

Running Too or Driving Too Close to Concrete Will Shorten Life of Any Tire.

Rubber curbs may not be feasible, but what a lot of tire expense they would save. Backing into a curb, running into a curb or driving too close to a curb, so that the tire scrapes along the concrete and damages the side walls of the tire, are three ways of shortening the life of your tires.

AVOID OVERHEATING ON LOW

Trouble Can Be Prevented by Keeping Mixture in the Leanest Possible Condition.

When it is necessary to employ the low gear for a considerable period it is possible to obviate the overheating that would ordinarily result by keeping the mixture in the leanest possible condition.

Protect Your Porch Floors
It's strange but true that some people think any old paint will do for porch floors.
But it won't! The porch floor gets much harder wear than any other surface around the house. That's why it should be protected with a paint that will stand that wear.
Lowe's Porch Floor Paint will stand up under severe conditions because it's made for that purpose.

The KITCHEN CABINET

God give us more of the people who set about definitely and actively to cultivate the habit of happiness; people the corners of whose mouths are turned chronically up, not down; people who are looking for inspiration and calling forth the best from all.—R. W. Trine.

EVERY DAY HELPS.

A pinch of cream of tartar in fudge or frosting will prevent sugaring and will make it nice and creamy.

The whites will come off oranges if held under cold water and scraped.

Cover poached eggs just a minute before serving to give them the pretty pink, glazed look.

Water ferns at least once a week with cold coffee or tea; it will make them very luxuriant.

Add a little chopped cabbage and apple to the ordinary potato salad to give it a little unusual flavor.

Canned pineapple juice cooked with sago or tapioca and served with cream, using a garnish of chopped pineapple, makes a most dainty dessert.

A small amount of preserves stirred into cake crumbs and flavored with a drop of rose, garnished with whipped cream, makes another easy and good dessert.

For a delicious layer cake filling take one cupful of maple sirup and stir thick with powdered sugar, add nuts to the filling and use the plain mixture for the top.

One new thing a day is the rule for the evening meal conversation. Each contributes something of interest, making the gathering a cheery, happy event.

When running sash window curtains on rods which are not smooth at the ends, use an old glove finger over the rod.

When cooking rice, save enough to make griddle cakes for breakfast. Add one cupful of rice to the batter. Use some for supper or luncheon dish with meat and tomato.

When tying a package and you have no one to put a finger on the string to hold it, slip the end you are tying twice under the string; the knot will not slip while you finish tying it.

When bits of yolk get into the white, dip them out with half an egg shell.

French zinc, thinned with boiled oil to make it of the right consistency, is a much finer white paint than any made of white lead, goes farther, and has a much finer gloss.

"Henrys" and "Harrys."

While I know one Harry who was so christened with disregard for the more dignified Henry and there may be other instances of the kind, there seems to be little doubt that the latter is the parent of the former name. England has always called its King Henrys "Harry." During the reign of Henry VI, who succeeded to the throne in 1422, there was a piece of money coined called the Harry noble, and in the time of Henry VIII there was a tiny coin named the Harry groat. "In Jerusalem shall Harry die," said Henry IV.—Chicago Daily News.

Cannot Photograph in Colors.

It seems a remarkable thing, considering the progress of the science of photography and cinematography, that color photography is still an undiscovered secret. There are processes by which a very natural camouflage of Nature can be produced, but the plate is yet to be made which will produce a landscape in autumn in all its wondrous tints, or take a portrait of a lady with the natural coloring of the hair, eyes, and complexion, with the various colors of her costume "in the manner as she lives."

Take a Little Time to Think Before You Spend That Dollar

"How long should we think before we spend?" At least long enough to make sure that we get real value for our money and the time it took to earn that money.

For example: If it took us ten minutes or an hour or a week or a month of good hard work to earn that money, are we getting something that is worth working that long or hard to get?

Will what we buy give us a fair return in comfort, health, advancement, satisfaction or recreation?

In other words are we getting our time's worth as well as our money's worth—for money after all is simply a counter for time and effort.

How about giving at least ten per cent as much thought to spending as it takes to earn?

If it takes us ten minutes at desk or lathe to earn a dime, we surely ought to be willing to give one minute of solid thought to its spending. A whole day's wages are worth at least three-quarters of an hour of consideration.

A whole month's income merits at least time enough to make a family budget—which is just a plan to make sure that we get the most out of our wages or salaries.

Really wise spenders think more than ten per cent. Their savings and possessions pay them mighty big wages for every minute spent in such thought.—Bulletin of Natl. Assn. of Credit Men.

Legend Gives Mother of Drowned Boy Hope

In the old days in Poland they used to tell a legend of a youth who tumbled into a bottomless lake and did not reappear until the next day, when he surprised his relatives by returning alive.

He told of a subaquatic cave where a current had carried him and out of which he was able to find a tunnel to the surface of the ground.

The mother of Tony Jasko, 11, heard that story years ago. Early this morning she recounted it in hysterical gasps to the neighbors who had come to the home at 8438 Kingston Ave. to console her for Tony's loss.

The boy and other youngsters had been playing last night on the brink of a seventy-foot-deep lake in an old quarry now owned by the Consumers Company at 82nd St. and Houston Ave. He fell into the water and sank to rise again but once.

"When they're really drowned they come up three times," the mother assured herself and her sympathetic friends. "Wait till tomorrow; there may be—"

Where the Grocer Was.

Doris' mother was in the habit of ordering her bread at Smith's grocery. One day while entertaining callers they heard Doris in the next room talking through her toy telephone, asking Central for Smith's grocery, when she called: "Mother, Mr. Smith isn't at home." "Where do you suppose he is?" replied the mother. Doris answered: "Why, he's up in heaven getting our daily bread."

"The Holy City"

Gaul's "The Holy City" was sung by the full choir of the Normal Park Presbyterian church, 71st St. and Yale Ave., Sunday evening, June 20th.

Richard B. DeYoung, director of the choir, secured the assistance of the following well known solosits:

Ethel Benedict, soprano.
Anna Braun, contralto.
Fred Wise, tenor.
Thomas MacBurney, baritone.

The choir has been training for the past six months and has been conspicuously successful in its work. The soloists were splendid and a most enjoyable entertainment pleased a large, appreciative audience.

TIROMETER
MARK

A TIROMETER adds one-third to the life of a tire, as it always shows the pressure. Kicking a tire won't tell the pressure within 20 pounds. Taking pressure with an ordinary tire gauge is a long, dirty, tiresome job. Have them put on your tires today. Easily installed.

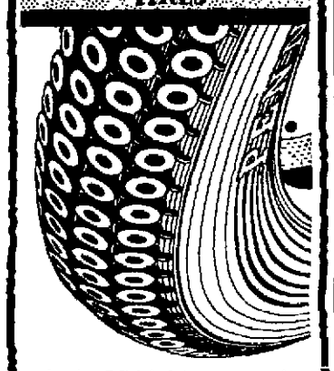
Oyster Mystery Explained.

We are told that oysters are sensitive to extremes of heat. Which explains why you run across so few of the little darlings in a bowl of soup.—Knoxville Journal.

Roman Shorthand.

The Romans were the first to use shorthand. They used it throughout the first century, B. C., continuing its practice for at least four centuries. Marcus Tullius Tiro, the secretary and librarian for Cicero, was the pioneer of Roman shorthand.

Pennsylvania VACUUM CUP TIRES



THIS highly attractive chestnut colored tread does more than add striking appearance to your car.

It adds absolute non-skid protection on wet, slippery pavements.

The Vacuum Cups operate on the only principle by which rubber projections can grip a smooth, treacherous surface—vacuum suction.

You pay only for the quality—the safety costs you nothing.

I'm Going to Celebrate the birthday this year of my jolly old Uncle Samuel, by wearing all of my shiniest, most brilliant gems. They came from Bloomquist's shop, so you can know they are fine. Nothing too good for Uncle Sam's nieces!

The spirit of '76 surges today with new fervor through our breasts, we have completed nearly a century and a half of freedom and as the decades have passed our appreciation of democracy has strengthened. In fighting for liberty we have broadened its significance.

Our victories at Lexington, Sumter, Santiago and Chateau Thierry have reaffirmed our liberties and kept this the land of opportunity. Today there is no citizen so humble but may aspire to the greatest gifts within the hands of the populace; no lad so lowly but he may aim to lead the nation.
